

The Consumers Bankers Association has chosen to overturn an Indiana law that the vast majority of Indiana residents support as evidenced by the large number of Indiana citizens that signed up for protection from unwanted telephone solicitors. For the past two years I have enjoyed eating the evening meal with my family with no interruptions by the telephone solicitors. Please uphold my rights to privacy provided by this Indiana law.